Principle	Qualitative Notes Statement
General	In 2017 BM&FBOVESPA completed the project to integrate into BM&FBOVESPA Clearinghouse the markets previously cleared and settled through the CBLC (the equities clearinghouse operated by BM&FBOVESPA). On August 28th, 2017 the CBLC ceased its operations and since then the cash equities, corporate bonds, equity derivatives and the securities lending markets have been cleared and settled through "BM&FBOVESPA Clearinghouse", together with the financial and commodities derivatives and gold. Figures reported herein refer to BM&FBOVESPA Clearinghouse activities after the incorporation of the CBLC markets and therefore some of material variations against the July report may be due to this change.
4	4.1.6 - The figure reported herein consists in the sum of (i) the contributions of brokerage houses as Minimum Nonoperating Collateral (pre-funded and nonmutualized access requirement) and (ii) BM&FBOVESPA's own resources dedicated to support the activities of its clearinghouses, in addition to its contribution to default fund. Item (ii) represents 59% of the total reported under 4.1.6. For further details about the sequence of use of collateral, please refer to the BM&FBOVESPA Clearinghouse Risk Management Manual. The amount of the contribution required of brokerage houses as Minimum Nonoperating Collateral is established in the BM&FBOVESPA Access Manual. Both manuals are available on BM&FBOVESPA's website (http://www.bmfbovespa.com.br/en_us/regulation/regulations-and-manuals/#item-4).
4	4.1.9 - Total to be replenished by default event (total amount of required contributions minus the largest contribution). Replenished resources can only be used in future defaults. During any 20-day period, a clearing member's total replenishment obligation cannot surpass 3 times such clearing member's required contribution, regardless of the number of default events that may have occurred. Please refer to the BM&FBOVESPA Clearinghouse Rule – articles 110 thru 113.
4	4.2. US regulation.
4	4.3.5 - The figure reported herein includes mutualized, nonmutualized and BM&FBOVESPA's own resources. Please refer to note 4.1.6. With regard to BM&FBOVESPA's own resources, it is worth mentioning that according to the BM&FBOVESPA's Financial Investment Policy, such resources must comply with allocation limits relating to: (i) the type of asset (100% in Brazilian government bonds, Brazilian government bond repos, and investment funds with same-day redemption that hold in portfolio only such bonds and repos, and have as managers, administrators and custodians only institutions authorised by the policy (basically institutions with high credit ratings)); (ii) the type of return (at least 85% floating rate); and (iii) liquidity (at least 90% with immediate liquidity, i.e. same-day redemption).
4	4.3.14 - The figure reported herein includes bank letters of credit and certificates of deposit. No haircuts apply.

4	4.4 - In mid-December 2016, the CCP implemented methodological changes to its credit stress test, adding new stress testing scenario and increasing the frequency of stress testing. Considering that data under the new methodology are not available before mid-December 2016, it was decided to report the available data. Therefore instead of referring to the previous 12 months, data reported refers to the period from mid-December 2016 to the end of the reference period of this quantitative report.
5	5.1.1 - Collateral limits: The limits defined by BM&FBOVESPA to restrict the use of assets in the constitution of collateral are: (i) Limits for bank letters of credit and certificates of deposit; (ii) Limits for the deposit of assets as third-party collateral; (iii) Acceptance limits for shares, ETF shares and units; and (iv) Utilization limits for illiquid collateral. For the relevant criteria, please refer to section 6.3 of the BM&FBOVESPA Clearinghouse Risk Management Manual.
5	5.2.1 - Collateral posted under the following purposes are considered as pre-funded participant contributions to the default resources: Settlement fund (default fund) and Minimum nonoperating collateral. Eligibility and haircuts apply as follows: Settlement fund and Minimum nonoperating collateral: FILCB shares (no haircuts). FILCB is an investment fund managed by BM&FBOVESPA Bank, which exclusive purpose is to provide liquidity to the CCP. FILCB invests in post-fixed Brazilian federal government securities indexed to the SELIC rate. For further information on FILCB's investment policy, please refer to FILCB's Bylaws: http://www.bmfbovespa.com.br/lumis/portal/file/fileDownload.jsp?fileId=8AA8D0976075EB9901607968FE275AAA
5	5.3.1 - Haircuts are given by the same scenarios (for risk factors) used in the valuation of positions for margin calculation (CORE) purposes. Therefore, collateral valuation is inherent in margin calculation, being evaluated jointly with positions. Considering that margin is calculated by individual client, the joint assessment of positions and collateral means that the same asset may be valued at different prices for different clients (for instance, if customers A and B have posted asset X as collateral, CORE may assign one value for X when calculating customer A's margin and another value for X when calculating customer B's margin). Hence, haircut tests are embedded in the CORE backtesting.
5	5.3.2 - The assumed holding/liquidation period for the assets accepted as collateral vary from 1 to 10 days, depending on the volume to be liquidated and on the daily liquidity of collateral, considering an orderly liquidation process.
5	5.3.3 - As explained in note 5.3.1, haircut tests are embedded in margin backtesting. Margin backtesting is performed daily at individual client level – the closeout of each client's portfolio is simulated based on the actual prices observed in the closeout period (the previous 10 days), and the financial outcome, if negative, is compared with the client's posted collateral. The haircuts are also tested in risk factor testing (the haircuts applicable to an asset are determined by the scenarios for the risk factors of this asset). The margin methodology consists of a stress test that assesses positions and collateral jointly, and the asset posted as collateral may be valued at different prices, depending on the portfolio to which it belongs. The scenarios for the risk factors are of three types – historical, quantitative and prospective – and are limited by the envelope scenarios. The CCP compares on a daily basis the actual variation of each risk factor with the corresponding current envelope scenario.
5	5.3.4 - Collateral haircut must be considered within CORE methodology. CORE calculates the risk of collateral and positions jointly, which means that the same scenarios (for variations in risk factor prices) are used to define collateral value and to evaluate positions held in the same portfolio. The value of collateral will be determined not only by the collateral itself but also by the other positions that make up an investor's portfolio. Therefore a backtesting of the collateral haircuts alone may not be a meaningful measure for the evaluation of the robustness of the risk model. Results for a backtesting of the risk model can be found in 6.5.
6	6.1 - BM&FBOVESPA adopts an individual client segregation model, meaning that positions are registered in individually segregated accounts and risk is calculated at individual client level. A clearing member's proprietary portfolio (house) is deemed as an individual customer's portfolio, since it corresponds to a CM acting as a customer, and therefore the individual margin requirement applies. Note that BM&FBOVESPA requires collateralization by the client in case of (a) derivatives market and securities lending market and (b) house positions; for the cash equity market it allows 2 collateralization modes for the cash equity market: (1) collateralization by the client or (2) collateralization by the brokerage house, at the discretion of the client and the brokerage house. In all cases, the margin methodology calculates risk at the client level, where in mode (2) an aggregation of the N largest client risks applies (for further details on margin methodology please refer to the BM&FBOVESPA Clearinghouse Risk Management Manual). In case (2), collateral (posted by brokerage houses) are registered in accounts segregated by brokerage houses and in the other cases collateral are registered in accounts segregated by clients.
6	6.2 - Collateral haircut must be considered within CORE methodology. CORE assesses collateral and positions jointly, which means that the same scenarios (for variations in primitive risk factors) are used in the definition of collateral amounts and in the evaluation of positions. The value of collateral will be determined not only by the collateral itself but also by the other positions that make up an investor's portfolio, which means that collateral may be valued at higher prices than mark-to-market prices. The possible occurrence of such an event must not be understood as a "negative haircut," but as a feature of the CORE methodology.
6	6.2.5 - The information reported herein includes Brazilian sovereign government bonds and also shares of the investment fund named "FIC Garantia," which is managed by BM&FBOVESPA through the BM&FBOVESPA Bank. The acquired "FIC Garantia" shares are automatically pledged in favor of the clearinghouse as collateral. The "FIC Garantia"'s resources are invested in Brazilian sovereign government bonds, either directly or via financial instruments backed by such bonds.
6	6.2.14 - The information reported herein includes letters of credit and certificates of deposit issued by commercial banks and also cash collateral that is received as cash but is held as an investment (resources from such investment are made available on the same day, for the most part within the hour). No haircuts apply to letters of credit, certificates of deposit, or cash collateral.
6	6.3.1 - BM&FBOVESPA discloses on a daily basis, on its website, the maximum theoretical margin required of any instrument. Such maximum theoretical margin represents the value of margin that would be required of a portfolio made up of a unit of the relevant instrument and no collateral.
6	6.4.1 - CORE - Closeout Risk Evaluation (proprietary model): CORE methodology consists in a portfolio (positions and collateral) stress test model where market, liquidity and cash flow risks are modeled so as to provide a measure for collateral deficit as the worst financial outcome of the portfolio closeout process, if negative. The stress test is based on a set of 10,000 scenarios for the price variations of risk factors, among prospective, historical and quantitative scenarios. Positions and collateral are jointly valued across the scenarios.
6	6.4.2 - On August 28th, 2017 BM&FBOVESPA completed the project to integrate into BM&FBOVESPA Clearinghouse the markets previously cleared and settled through the CBLC (the equities clearinghouse operated by BM&FBOVESPA). A relevant part of the integration project was to prepare CORE to deal with the specificities of these markets.
6	6.4.9 - A weighing scheme is applied to the time series of Brazilian nominal and real interest rates, in order to adjust for structural breaks in interest rate volatility. This weighing scheme works by splitting the time series in three different time periods (2002-2004, 2004-2005 and 2005 onwards), standardizing the rate variations in each period by the maximum and minimum variations observed in the relevant period and then using the envelope scenario for the risk factors to scale back the variations.
6	6.4.12 - Due to the integration of the equity markets to the BM&FBOVESPA Clearinghouse, on August 28th, 2017 became effective the holding periods for the new contracts / products.
6	6.4.14 - Every two weeks the BM&FBOVESPA Market Risk Technical Committee (internal committee) reviews all key margin methodology parameters (such as stress scenarios and risk horizons), reexamining the more stable or less important parameters at least once a month. Additionally the parameters are monitored by the risk management team on a daily basis and can be reviewed/changed whenever the committee deems necessary.
6	6.5.1.1 - Back testing applies at the individual client account. Therefore, the figure reported herein refers to the total number of times over the past 12 months that margin coverage held against any individual client account fell below the actual marked-to-market exposure of that individual client account (violation) - based on daily back-testing results. The information reported here does not refer to violations at clearing member's level.
6	6.6.1 - BM&FBOVESPA Clearinghouse serves the following markets: financial, commodities and equities derivatives markets (ETD), cash equity market, securities lending market and OTC derivatives market. Therefore figures reported here refer to the average of daily financial settlement values paid to the CCP. The financial settlement value assigned to a participant comprises the values related to positions and transactions on such markets (variation margin for futures, options premiums, exercise of options, settlement value of OTC derivatives at maturity/early settlement, cash equities principal, forward trades, securities lending fees, margin calls not covered by collateral until 1:00 p.m., costs).
7	7.1.6 - Out of the amount reported in 7.1.6, BRL 20 billion represents committed lines with the BM&FBOVESPA Bank, through which the CCP accesses the Central Bank of Brazil's intraday liquidity mechanism; although a limit of BRL 20 billion is set up in the agreement, liquidity may be provided up to the total government bonds the CCP provides as collateral. The other committed lines are established with major banks, and they are also backed by Brazilian federal government bonds.
7	7.1.7 - Unsecured committed lines of credit are not clearinghouse-specific, in the sense that they may be used by any of BM&FBOVESPA's clearinghouses.
7	7.1.8 - The figure reported in 7.1.8 does not include collateral reported in 6.2.
7	7.1.10 - Under the legal framework in force in Brazil, only financial institutions such as banks may have full access to the services provided by the Central Bank of Brazil. This provision excludes clearinghouses.
7	7.2.1 - In addition to collateral posted by participants, liquid funds are available to the BM&FBOVESPA Clearinghouse through (i) indirect access to the Central Bank of Brazil's discount window via the BM&FBOVESPA Bank, (ii) liquidity assistance facilities from financial institutions and (iii) BM&FBOVESPA's own cash. Other than such resources, there are no supplementary liquid resources.
7	7.3 - In October 2016, the CCP implemented methodological changes to its liquidity stress test, adding liquidity-specific stress testing scenarios.

15	15.2 - The figures presented herein refer to individual BM&FBOVESPA information. Consolidated figures for both BM&FBOVESPA and its subsidiaries may be looked up in the BM&FBOVESPA financial statements (http://ri.bmfbovespa.com.br , Financial Information, Results Release).
15	15.2.6 - Considering BM&FBOVESPA's financial statements, collateral received in cash is recorded as a liability under "Collateral for transactions" and other non-cash collateral is recorded under memorandum accounts.
15	15.3 - Please note that such percentages refer to BM&FBOVESPA and not only to the BM&FBOVESPA Clearinghouse.
15	15.3.1 - The percentage of total income that comes from fees related to provision of post-trading services is 34.88%, where post-trading services include clearing and depository services. The company does not disclose the fees related to clearing and depository services separately.
15	15.3.2 - The figure reported herein refers only to collateral posted in the form of BRL (local currency).
16	16.1.1 - The figure reported herein consists in the sum of cash received from participants, regardless of the form in which it is held, deposited or invested, received as (i) initial margin, (ii) minimum nonoperational collateral (pre-funded and nonmutualized access requirement), and (iii) collateral posted for operating balance purposes (nonmutualized). Item i represents 99.8% of the total reported under 16.1.1.
16	16.2.10 - This cash is invested in Brazilian government bonds or in financial instruments backed by such bonds, with floating-rate returns, immediate liquidity, and minimal exposure to private credit risk.
16	16.2.17 - BM&FBOVESPA maintains cash collateral invested in fixed-income investment funds, which are mostly made up of floating-rate Brazilian government bonds and floating rate repo transactions (backed by Brazilian government bonds) for 1 day. Hence, given the portfolio's characteristics, the returns on the portfolio are always positive, thus preserving the amount received as third-party collateral, being VaR calculations not applicable.
17	17.1.1 - The BM&FBOVESPA Clearinghouse is considered as systemically important in Brazil. Therefore, it must achieve an operational availability index greater than or equal to 99.8%, as required under article 10 of Circular #3057 issued by the Central Bank of Brazil.
17	17.2.1 - The methodology used in the measurement of the actual availability of BM&FBOVESPA Clearinghouse's core systems has been modified. The data presented in this item refer to the period from January 2017 on.
18	18.1.1 - Currently, BM&FBOVESPA Clearinghouse does not distinguish membership categories between clearing members. Figures reported in 18.1.1.3 refer to the total number of clearing members.
18	18.1.2.1 - The Central Bank of Brazil (BCB) is a participant (clearing member), however it does not contribute to the default fund. In this item, the criterion defined to report an institution as a participant was the existence of a contribution to default fund. Therefore, BCB is not reported here as a participant.
18	18.1.2.4 - "Other participants" basically include Brokerage Firms and Broker-Dealer Firms.
18	18.1.3.2 - Please note that the parent company of a participant (clearing member) can be established in a foreign country. The figures reported herein refer to clearing members only, and not to their parent companies.
