| Principle | Qualitative Notes Statement |
|-----------|--|
| General | The figures reported herein refer to BM&FBOVESPA Clearinghouse. |
| 4 | 4.1.6 - The figure reported herein consists in the sum of (i) the contributions of brokerage houses and clearing members as Minimum Nonoperational Collateral (pre-funded and nonmutualized access requirement), (ii) collateral posted for Operating Balance adjustment purposes (nonmutualized) and (iii) BM&FBOVESPA's own resources dedicated to support the activities of its clearinghouses, in addition to its contribution to default funds. Item iii represents 40% of the total reported under 4.1.6. For further details about the sequence of use of collateral, please refer to the BM&FBOVESPA Clearinghouse Risk Management Manual. The amount of the contribution required of brokerage houses and clearing members as Minimum Nonoperational Collateral is established in the BM&FBOVESPA Access Manual. Both manuals are available on BM&FBOVESPA's website (http://www.bmfbovespa.com.br/en_us/regulation/regulations-and-manuals/#item-4). |
| 4 | 4.1.9 - Total to be replenished by default event (total amount of required contributions minus the largest contribution). Replenished resources can only be used in future defaults. During any 20-day period, a clearing member's total replenishment obligation cannot surpass 3 times such clearing member's required contribution, regardless of the number of default events that may have occurred. Please refer to the BM&FBOVESPA Clearinghouse Rule – articles 110 thru 113. |
| 4 | 4.2. US regulation. |
| 4 | 4.3.5 - The figure reported herein includes mutualized, nonmutualized and BM&FBOVESPA's own resources. Please refer to note 4.1.6. With regard to BM&FBOVESPA's own resources, it is worth mentioning that according to the BM&FBOVESPA's Financial Investment Policy, such resources must comply with allocation limits relating to: (i) the type of asset (100% in Brazilian government bonds, Brazilian government bond repos, and investment funds with same-day redemption that hold in portfolio only such bonds and repos, and have as managers, administrators and custodians only institutions authorised by the policy (basically institutions with high credit ratings)); (ii) the type of return (at least 85% floating rate); and (iii) liquidity (at least 90% with immediate liquidity, i.e. same-day redemption). |
| 4 | 4.3.14 - The figure reported herein includes bank letters of credit and certificates of deposit. No haircuts apply. |
| 4 | 4.4 - In mid-December 2016, the CCP implemented methodological changes to its credit stress test, adding new stress testing scenario and increasing the frequency of stress testing. Considering that data under the new methodology are not available before mid-December 2016, it was decided to report the available data. Therefore, note that data have not been reported over the previous 12 months, but over the period from mid-December 2016 to the end of the reference period of this Quantitative Disclosure. |
| 5 | 5.1.1 - Collateral limits: The limits defined by BM&FBOVESPA to restrict the use of assets in the constitution of collateral are: (i) Limits for bank letters of credit and certificates of deposit; (ii) Limits for the deposit of assets as third-party collateral; (iii) Acceptance limits for shares, ETF shares and units; and (iv) Utilization limits for illiquid collateral. For the relevant criteria, please refer to section 6.3 of the BM&FBOVESPA Clearinghouse Risk Management Manual. |
| 5 | 5.3.1 - Haircuts are given by the same scenarios (for risk factors) used in the valuation of positions for margin calculation (CORE) purposes. Therefore, collateral valuation is inherent in margin calculation, being evaluated jointly with positions. Considering that margin is calculated by individual client, the joint assessment of positions and collateral means that the same asset may be valued at different prices for different clients (for instance, if customers A and B have posted asset X as collateral, CORE may assign one value for X when calculating customer A's margin and another value for X when calculating customer B's margin). Hence, haircut tests are embedded in the CORE backtesting. |
| 5 | 5.3.2 - The assumed holding/liquidation period for the assets accepted as collateral vary from 1 to 10 days, depending on the volume to be liquidated and on the daily liquidity of collateral, considering an orderly liquidation process. |
| 5 | 5.3.3 - As explained in note 5.3.1, haircut tests are embedded in margin backtesting. Margin backtesting is performed daily at individual client level – the closeout of each client's portfolio is simulated based on the actual prices observed in the closeout period (the previous 10 days), and the financial outcome, if negative, is compared with the client's posted collateral. The haircuts are also tested in risk factor testing (the haircuts applicable to an asset are determined by the scenarios for the risk factors of this asset). The margin methodology stress tests assess positions and collateral jointly, and the asset posted as collateral may be valued at different prices, depending on the portfolio to which it belongs. The scenarios for the risk factors are of three types – historical, quantitative and prospective – and are limited by the envelope scenarios. The CCP compares on a daily basis the actual variation of each risk factor with the corresponding current envelope scenario. |
| 5 | 5.3.4 - Collateral haircut must be considered within CORE methodology. CORE calculates the risk of collateral and positions jointly, which means that the same scenarios (for variations in risk factor prices) are used to define collateral value and to evaluate positions held in the same portfolio. The value of collateral will be determined not only by the collateral itself but also by the other positions that make up an investor's portfolio. Therefore a backtesting of the collateral haircuts alone may not be a meaningful measure for the evaluation of the robustness of the risk model. Results for a backtesting of the risk model can be found in 6.5. |
| 6 | 6.1 - BM&FBOVESPA adopts an individual client segregation model, meaning that positions and collateral are registered in individually segregated accounts and margins are calculated at individual client level ("client gross" margin model). A clearing member's proprietary portfolio (house) is deemed as an individual customer's portfolio, since it corresponds to a CM acting as a customer, and therefore the individual margin requirement applies. For the purposes of this report, the sum of margins required of CMs due to their proprietary portfolios is informed in note 6.1.1. |
| 6 | 6.2 - Collateral haircut must be considered within CORE methodology. CORE assesses collateral and positions jointly, which means that the same scenarios (for variations in primitive risk factors) are used in the definition of collateral amounts and in the evaluation of positions. The value of collateral will be determined not only by the collateral itself but also by the other positions that make up an investor's portfolio, which means that collateral may be valued at higher prices than mark-to-market prices. The possible occurrence of such an event must not be understood as a "negative haircut," but as a feature of the CORE methodology. |
| 6 | 6.2.5 - The information reported herein includes Brazilian sovereign government bonds and also shares of the investment fund named "FIC Garantia," which is managed by BM&FBOVESPA through the BM&FBOVESPA Bank. The acquired "FIC Garantia" shares are automatically pledged in favor of the clearinghouse as collateral. The "FIC Garantia"'s resources are invested in Brazilian sovereign government bonds, either directly or via financial instruments backed by such bonds. |
| 6 | 6.2.14 - The information reported herein includes letters of credit and certificates of deposit issued by commercial banks and also cash collateral that is received as cash but is held as an investment (resources from such investment are made available on the same day, for the most part within the hour). No haircuts apply to letters of credit, certificates of deposit, or cash collateral. |
| 6 | 6.3.1 - BM&FBOVESPA discloses on a daily basis, on its website, the maximum theoretical margin required of any instrument. Such maximum theoretical margin represents the value of margin that would be required of a portfolio made up of a unit of the relevant instrument and no collateral. |
| 6 | 6.4.1 - CORE, or Closeout Risk Evaluation (proprietary model): The CORE methodology consists in a portfolio (positions and collateral) stress test model where market, liquidity and cash flow risks are modeled so as to provide a measure for collateral deficit as the worst financial outcome of the portfolio closeout process, if negative. The stress test is based on a set of 10,000 scenarios for the price variations of risk factors, among prospective, historical and quantitative scenarios. Positions and collateral are jointly valued across the scenarios. |
| 6 | 6.4.9 - A weighing scheme is applied to the time series of Brazilian nominal and real interest rates, in order to adjust for structural breaks in interest rate volatility. This weighing scheme works by splitting the time series in three different time periods (2002-2004, 2004-2005 and 2005 onwards), standardizing the rate variations in each period by the maximum and minimum variations observed in the relevant period and then using the envelope scenario for the risk factors to scale back the variations. |
| 6 | 6.4.14 - Every two weeks the BM&FBOVESPA Market Risk Technical Committee (internal committee) reviews all key margin methodology parameters (such as stress scenarios and risk horizons), reexamining the more stable or less important parameters at least once a month. Additionally the parameters are monitored in a daily basis and can be reviewed/changed whenever the committee deems necessary. |
| 6 | 6.5.1.1 - Back testing applies at the individual client account. Therefore, the figure reported herein refers to the total number of times over the past 12 months that margin coverage held against any individual client account fell below the actual marked-to-market exposure of that individual client account (violation) - based on daily back-testing results. The information reported here does not refer to violations at clearing member's level. |
| 7 | 7.1.6 - Out of the amount reported in 7.1.6, BRL10 billion represents committed lines with the BM&FBOVESPA Bank, through which the CCP accesses the Central Bank of Brazil's intraday liquidity mechanism; although a limit of BRL10 billion is set up in the agreement, liquidity may be provided up to the total government bonds the CCP provides as collateral. The other committed lines are established with major banks, and they are also backed by Brazilian federal government bonds. |

|----|---|
| 7 | 7.1.7 - Unsecured committed lines of credit are not clearinghouse-specific, in the sense that they may be used by any of BM&FBOVESPA's clearinghouses. |
| 7 | 7.1.8 - The figure reported in 7.1.8 does not include collateral reported in 6.2. |
| 7 | 7.1.10 - Under the legal framework in force in Brazil, only financial institutions such as banks may have full access to the services provided by the Central Bank of Brazil. This provision excludes clearinghouses. |
| 7 | 7.2.1 - In addition to collateral posted by participants, liquid funds are available to the BM&FBOVESPA Clearinghouse through (i) indirect access to the Central Bank of Brazil's discount window via the BM&FBOVESPA Bank, (ii) liquidity assistance facilities from financial institutions and (iii) BM&FBOVESPA's own cash. Other than such resources, there are no supplementary liquid resources. |
| 7 | 7.3 - In October 2016, the CCP implemented methodological changes to its liquidity stress test, adding liquidity-specific stress testing scenarios. |
| 12 | 12.1.1 - The BM&FBOVESPA Clearinghouse adopts the principle of delivery-versus-payment (DvP) only in the settlement of transactions involving physical delivery (arabica coffee, anhydrous ethanol, and gold). When compared with cash settlement volumes, figures from settlement by physical delivery are irrelevant. The percentages for 12.1.1 and 12.2.2 would be really close to 0%. |
| 15 | 15.2 - The figures presented herein refer to individual BM&FBOVESPA information. Consolidated figures for both BM&FBOVESPA and its subsidiaries may be looked up in the BM&FBOVESPA financial statements (http://ri.bmfbovespa.com.br , Financial Information, Results Release). |
| 15 | 15.2.6 - Considering BM&FBOVESPA's financial statements, collateral received in cash is recorded as a liability under "Collateral for transactions" and other non-cash collateral is recorded under memorandum accounts. |
| 15 | 15.3.1 - The percentage of total income that comes from fees related to provision of post-trading services is 34.88%, where post-trading services include clearing and depository services. The company does not disclose the fees related to clearing and depository services separately. |
| 16 | 16.2.10 - This cash is invested in Brazilian government bonds or in financial instruments backed by such bonds, with floating-rate returns, immediate liquidity, and minimal exposure to private credit risk. |
| 16 | 16.2.17 - BM&FBOVESPA maintains cash collateral invested in fixed-income investment funds, which are mostly made up of floating-rate Brazilian government bonds and floating-rate repo transactions (backed by Brazilian government bonds) for 1 day. Hence, given the portfolio's characteristics, the returns on the portfolio are always positive, thus preserving the amount received as third-party collateral, being VaR calculations not applicable. |
| 17 | 17.1.1 - The BM&FBOVESPA Clearinghouse is considered as systemically important in Brazil. Therefore, it must achieve an operational availability index greater than or equal to 99.8%, as required under article 10 of Circular #3057 issued by the Central Bank of Brazil. |
| 17 | 17.2.1 - The methodology used in the measurement of the actual availability of BM&FBOVESPA's core systems has been modified. The data presented in this item refer to the period from January 2016 on. |
| 18 | 18.1.1.3 - The BM&FBOVESPA Clearinghouse has three types of clearing members: 1, 2 and 3, which are defined as follows: A type 1 clearing member settles proprietary transactions and transactions ordered by any other member of its financial conglomerate, as well as transactions executed for the portfolios of funds to which this clearing member or any member of its financial conglomerate has been formally appointed as manager or administrator (fund manager or portfolio manager). A type 2 clearing member settles any of the transactions permitted for the type 1 clearing member, as well as transactions executed for customers by any member of its financial conglomerate when acting in the capacity of a full trading participant. A type 3 clearing member settles any of the transactions permitted for the type 1 or the type 2 clearing member, as well as transactions executed for customers by any full trading participant, regardless of the financial conglomerate membership. For the purposes of this report, we have considered type 1 clearing members as Direct Clearing Members, and type 2 and type 3 clearing members as General Clearing Members. |
| 18 | 18.1.2.4 - "Other participants" basically include Brokerage Firms and Broker-Dealer Firms. |
